

Regional Sales Manager

Midwestern Biotechnology company is seeking qualified persons for a Regional Sales Manager Positions in the Southwest, South Central, Mid Central, Upper Midwest, Southeast Region and Northeast Region.

Ideal candidates will possess strong knowledge of the animal feed industry with a degree in animal science or equivalent work experience. In this position you will be responsible for working with existing accounts and developing new business. Position requires strong communication skills, knowledge of business in respective territories. Strong computer skills in excel, word, and power point. Training is provided by the company on products and key business factors. Candidate must be self-motivated, innovative and able to manage and schedule his or her own time representing the company professionally. Competitive salary and complete benefit package.

Qualified candidates should send their resume by mail to Varied Industries Corporation,
PO Box 1483 Mason City, IA 50402, or fax to 641-423-0832, or e-mail to vi-cor@vi-cor.com. Please visit our web site for more details on our company at www.vi-cor.com .